From the Navigator

A very warm welcome aboard the Regal Princess from the Captain and his Officers. After arriving in Venice on Saturday afternoon, Regal Princess remained secured alongside her berth at Bacino di Marittima over Saturday and throughout Sunday. We will remain moored at our berth during Sunday night, before setting sail for Dubrovnik shortly after midday on Monday afternoon.

Venice Water Shuttle

How to purchase your tickets if you did not sign up at check-in:

See your friendly Shuttle Staff ashore at the Water Shuttle Embarkation Area.

A Shuttle Water Shuttle Service will operate between the Ship's pier (Maritime Station) and an area close to St. Mark's Square.

The transit time is approximately 15 to 20 minutes each way. The first Water Shuttle will depart shortly after arrival. The last Water Shuttle from St. Mark's Square will be at 11:30pm.

Venice Water Shuttle tickets, valid throughout July 13th and the morning of July 14th, cost USD $ 25.00 per person.

Passports While Ashore

Please be advised that all passengers must be in possession of their passports when going ashore in Venice. Security checkpoints will request to view all passenger passports. Photocopies are not permitted.

Consummate Host of the MonthCarmen Laurel Garganera

Bar Waitress

My name is Carmen Laurel Garganera. I come from Evangelista Makati in the heart of the beautiful Philippines.

My career started with Princess Cruises as a bar steward on the Ruby Princess. I was very fortunate to be part of the inaugural teams for both Royal Princess & Regal Princess and am amazed to be chosen as Consummate Host of the Month onboard this magnificent ship.

I would like to thank the Captain, the entire CRUISE committee and the Company who value my hard work. This award will surely encourage me to be dedicated and work even harder in providing the best possible service to our passengers.
